

Terre Foods Co-op Update

May '08, Issue #1

Just a quick update this time!

The Latest News:

- Incorporation process: We're incorporated! I have the scanned copy of the Secretary of State's acceptance in my, well, email file. There are still several steps left to go to finish the process (including by-laws and filing for a Federal ID number), but in essence, it's a done deal!
- Fundraising: We've got several great events coming up!
 - CUBA will be playing a benefit concert for Terre Foods on Friday, May 16th, at the Verve. Show starts at 10pm. Members of the Terre Foods steering committee will be on hand selling our brand new Tote Bags and T-Shirts—all featuring our wonderful logo designed by Christina Blust, who is also opening the show that night. We can't wait for this event, and such a great opportunity to meet everyone—it's going to be a blast!
 - We continue to take donations via Paypal (at www.terrefoods.org) and through the mail to PO Box 3043, Terre Haute, IN, 47803. Please stay tuned for a fundraising update coming out soon!
- Membership Committee: The membership committee will be holding its first meeting on Wednesday, May 21st at 6:30pm in Meeting Room A at the Vigo County Main Library. This meeting will be for getting acquainted and brainstorming ideas for our upcoming membership program. If you are interested in attending, please email tammy@terrefoods.org or candace@terrefoods.org.
- Terre Foods Cookbook: We are still looking for recipes! Send 'em along to cookbook@terrefoods.org. If you have any pictures of your dish, so much the better (but not necessary)! Include a brief bio (around 200 words) with your submission.

Where can I find Terre Foods this weekend?

The Spring and Summer season will begin a high time for Terre Foods to be out and about, getting the word out about our project, meeting folks, finding volunteers, taking donations and (hopefully soon!) selling memberships. Where can you find us? (Check our website at www.terrefoods.org, or www.terrefoodscommunity.org, for updates and new events!)

- The HERB FAIRE, Saturday, May 10th, from 9a-4p. Another great opportunity to come and hang out, get some great plants, and buy a tote bag!
- The Downtown Farmer's Market, 9th and Cherry, Saturday mornings from 8a-noon, June through October
- The Downtown Blues Fest (date/time TBA)

In cooperation,

Robyn
